We Are Meridian

Daily Announcements: Monday May 15

Good Morning Meridian Middle School! Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance. (Recite pledge)

- Congratulations to Trent Moma for his repeat performance as the State Champion in the long jump and to Drew Hurelbrink for his State Championship in the High Jump. Congratulations to all of the state track meet qualifiers that competed over the weekend!
- The Accelerated Reader Movie Reward will take place for 7th and 8th grade qualifying students today at 12:45. Those students should report to 6th period and then report to the Auditorium when announced.
- Student Council Officer position elections will take place for the 6th and 7th grade students today during Study Hall.
- Students will return their school issued chromebooks later this week. 6th grade students will return their Chromebooks on Thursday during Reading class while 7th and 8th grade students will return theirs on Friday during Reading class. The school issued case and charger must also be returned when checking these back in with the teacher.
- Beginning today students will not be permitted to have a negative meal account balance. If a lunch is not brought from home, an alternative lunch will be served until the account is taken care.
- Final Exams for 7th and 8th grade students will take place on Thursday and Friday. See the posted exam schedule in each classroom. In addition, the Student Council will sell Final Exam Survival kits both mornings from the concession stand. These will include a drink and snacks that will be permitted in the classrooms during the exam periods.
- Boys interested in the Basketball camp should return the forms to office as soon as possible.
- The Middle School girls' basketball camp will take place after school today.
- For lunch today we will have:
- Everyone have a great day.
